Originally from the East Coast, Ron has spent the last 15 years in Los Angeles working as a top session player, touring the world and composing music for film and television... Ron's latest release, "The Key" offers 13 brand new original songs and showcases his amazing musical scope, storyteller style lyrics, and all the hooks you could ask for in a song...Including "If I had my own Cadillac" winner of the prestigious "John Lennon Honorable Mention Award"... The song "Someone" is featured in the "2005 Hollywood Film Festival" movie "A Couple of Days and Nights" which had it's world premier on Oct. 22nd, 2005 (along with a new song from the legendary rock group "Heart" on the same sound track)... There are 10 more songs that run the gamut from heartfelt ballads to contemporary pop including the high-energy gem "Ain't it Strange" a song co-written with Burt B.K. Diaz (White Lion-Iron Butterfly)...And one of Ron's personal favorites "Again Again" a real power ballad co-written with one of his closest lifelong friends Joee Corso... "My music is influenced by my eclectic taste ranging from old, new, pop, country, rock, soul, R B etc. you name it and it's felt in my songwriting"... The sound fidelity comes from multi platinum record producer "Michael Vail Blum" who has worked with giants like "Madonna", "Michael Jackson", "The Who", "Bob Dylan" yada, yada, yada... If you love amazing performances, you'll love the players on this CD... Albe Bonacci on Drums, a Diane Warren drummer, it doesn't get any better than that... Todd Carlon- Piano Keyboards, currently working with Paul Anka and a regular with David Foster... Holger Fath- Electric Guitars, a Grammy award winning guitar player... Glenn Jordan, a multi Emmy award winning music composer, musician (Sha Na Na to Pee Wee's Playhouse)... He helped arrange, co write and made all the background vocals come to life and so much more... Sprinkle in one of Bette Midler's background singers "The Harlettes" Rhae Ann Theriault and R&B singer Teresa James, and you've got the making for "Platinum"... Ron did play the bass, acoustic guitars and sing. "It's my record, I thought I should!!!
