A Versatile, Singer/Songwriter/Performer with Melodic Guitar and Vocals from one true Solo Artist. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: 80's Rock Details: RONNIE LAND A versatile, Singer/Songwriter/Performer with melodic Guitar and Vocals from one true Solo Artist. Ronnie's Idea for his Solo CD, was to "Reach Out", to many different listeners of music. "Something for everyones taste, From an Acoustic Ballad to Pop, Rock, Tribal Pop, Christian Rock, Hard Rock and Funk. In 1983, Ronnie Land and long time friend Guitarist Nick Ferriera from Alameda, California formed a Heavy Metal Band called NightStalker. Playing the Northern California Club Circuit and throughout the City of San Fransico, California. In 1985, Ronnie's band, NightStalker received an invitation from Renaissance Records, (a Record Company out of Los Angeles, California), to be on a Compilation L.p.titled "California's Best Metal", a collection of twelve bands from all over California. The L.p. went to # 4 on the European Charts and their single titled "She's Got The Power", received airplay on a San Jose, California Radio Station. In 1997, Ronnie Land gets a Sponsorship to Sing at the Grand OLE Opry House in Nashville Tennessee, from Tool Distributors Coast Tool Company. A day job he had landed as a Warehouseman. Ronnie admits he's not a Country Singer, but was able to Sing his Original Song titled "Left Out In The Cold". Ronnie, remembers it was a very spiritual place to sing and play, an honor to sing on a stage where many of Great Country stars have played before! They video taped his performance, at the Grand Ole Opry house, on that November 16, 1997. Ronnie Land continues to write from his heart and soul, keep an eye out for Ronnie Lands next CD!
