ABOUT THIS CD: Gold and Gold Associates, Inc. proudly presents Ruth "Silky" Waters "Silky" is a very unique artist in all sense of the word. As a proud native of the Texas, "Silky" has the unique gift of commanding attention whenever she performs. Due to her distinctive sound and style "Silky" has earned such labels as "Queen of Emotion" and "Song Stylist Extraordinaire." One of our favorite songs on this CD is "Silky's" rendition of "Georgia On My Mind" (a tribute to the late Ray Charles), which she recorded prior to his death. It's indeed ironic that Miami's own Richard Williams, an accomplished musician who has been blind since childhood, accompanied her on piano. "What A Wonderful World" (another of our favorites on this CD) was produced and arranged by her oldest son, Woodie. "Silky" had the pleasure of working with Mike Gerber, a blind classical pianist and native New Yorker to give this song new life. We have revisited several cuts from her first two albums --- #5 and #6 on "Never Gonna Be The Same" (RCA Recordings) and the romantic but sultry "Ain't Never Been A Love Like This One" which was on the sound track for "The Woman Inside" (award winner at the Cannes Film Festival). This particular song was included on her "Out In The Open" (Midsong International) album. Her debut album "Never Gonna Be The Same" was recorded at the height of the dance era and was an instant hit charting Top 25 on Billboard and Record World. We are indeed excited about this new project. "Silky" delivers with her unique blend of class, style and sophistication. This is evident when listening to both versions of "As We Fall In Love Once More" (version two arranged by George Tandy, a young producer from Florida). "Silky's" performance of music by Duke Ellington, the "Blues Medley", and "My Funny Valentine" garnered her performances and tour appearances with the Lionel Hampton Orchestra, Miles Davis, and Freddie Hubbard. Her versatility and what "Silky" labels her "gift from God" enables her to sing from her heart and soul. She has and continues to delight audiences nationally and internationally. We at GGA thank you for participating on this musical journey with us. Sit back, relax and enjoy the talent we all know as "Silky".
