Details: Steven Feline is generally known as an Enigmatic performer . Over the years he has performed and recorded under several names and Guises and with several different bands . He signed his first recording contract at seventeen years old . His Vocal range and Arrangements are unique and can be Hypnotic with Steven providing all of his own Vocals with his Background voices seemingly hovering somewhere between The Beatles and The Munchkins . This has led many people over the years to assume that Steven is actually a collaboration of several other Performers presented under an assumed name . As far as the music on this compilation , All of the songs were originally recorded between 1971-78 .
