Intelligent electronica with a twist of indie. 6 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Electronica, AVANT GARDE: Electronic Avant-Garde Show all album songs: Unprethinkable Songs Details: The Double Truth is the solo project of Chris Ralston, a 20 year old electronica-artist from Boise Idaho. This young artist manages to keep things simple, - nothing is overdone -, and the simplicity is one of the elements that makes his music so brilliant. His soothing vocals is another element that makes me like this artist. He sings good, the mood of the voice fits the music, and his melodylines are effective and catchy. Ralston is currently working on an EP that will be called Unprethinkable, and he hopes to get it released this fall. His warm, electronic music has a calming effect on me, and according to the artist, he feels the same when hes making the songs: I write music simply because it brings a sort of, therapeutic calm over me as I am writing and recording. I have been lucky enough to have people listen to my music and share with them a part of myself with each song
