Sexy organic dance music that fulfills the travelling mind 9 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Chill out, ELECTRONIC: House Details: The first in a series of albums telling stories from travellers all around the world. Dromomania - the compulsive urge to travel is becoming more and more contagious with thousands of people throwing a rucksack on their back, picking exciting destinations they have only dreamt of, buying a round trip ticket and leaving their job. This urge to travel is being recorded by way of journals, photographs, memories and storytelling. The TRAVELLERS JOURNAL concept tells travellers' tales through music and photographs with genuine sounds from the street, nature and local dialogue. TRAVELLERS JOURNAL - BORACAY is a concept by musician Matt Deegan who records whilst on the road with artists from all around the world contributing to the album and Matt has used his connections with these musicians to create a truly unique album. The album is split into three musical genres; drum bass, house and chillout. These boundaries overlap so BORACAY flows smoothly from one genre to the next. DROMOMANIA - the compulsive urge to travel TUBE - time to start moving MABUHAY - welcome to the Philippines IF IT FIT'S IT'S HIP - finding your way in life and travel CEBU - I'm in your city, Cebu FORGETTING - a reflection on the travels so far and the travels yet to come SLIP - slip into beach life in Boracay RUNNING FREE - dancing through the sunset ENCHANTED DARK - look up at the beautiful night sky and fall asleep on the beach The website travellersjournaltunes connects all the TRAVELLERS JOURNAL sites together so you're only one click away from being able to listen, view, read or buy BORACAY.
