For 6 years Vladimir Khlopovsky and Ilya Truskovsky are working in collaboration creating music in different areas of electronic and expirmental music, researching the secrets of music and sound. But their interests come much farther than simple music concepts. They are looking for the whole complex of reasons, the hidden mechanisms that can enliven the soul and the heart of a man. These mechanisms are - frequencies, timbres, resonances and acoustics, intonations and articulations and even the energy of architecture forms. But still, we sure that the main component among all the variety remains to be - the human, the creator, the conductor of the world will.
