A mixture of spirituality reality. Creole's emphasis in his music is on the everchanging emotional struggle one endures in everyday life. He is like the ghetto C.N.N of Hip-Hop. 13 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast Details: My Biography Creole Born in Racine, Wisconsin, Creole was raised a Muslim in a family of five boys. After the migration from Racine to Milwaukee, and the abandonment of his father, the harsh reality of life's trials and tribulation began to come into play. With no male role model and the streets to guide him and his older siblings they became heavily involved in the streets. On the road to destruction Creole had become a victim of his own negligence was arrested for gun and drug charges by the age of 16. Placed on probation but never complying with the stipulations laid out before him he was violated and sentenced to 7 months in a juvenile facility. By the age of 17 he was arrested again for another gun charge only to be waived into the adult system. Upon his release his older sibling Ahjii acknowledged his talents, and began to inspire his creativity and natural gift of communication. Influenced by rappers such as, Tupac, Biggie, Scar Face, and Public Enemy, Creole was known in search of something better than what the streets had to offer. In his vain attempt to escape the street life, Creole was locked up again because of his radical beliefs and failure to obey the law. After his release Creole dropped an independent album with his older sibling Ahjii and Nix, formally of the group Keys and Gees. Creole is an artist from the Mid West determined to make his way into the rap industry and bring back the essential core of hip hop. Creole is known for his aggressive and truthful ways of bringing the grit and grime of the streets and politics into perspective. He has been a ghost writer for other artists and has appeared on several albums with Ice Mone and the 1-8 LOCS. Creole has done shows with Twista, the Big Timers, Yin Yang Twinz and more. Finally releasing his own solo album called My Epitaph with hit songs like What Happen, Unconditional Love and Empathy, he predicts this to be his most creative and by far the realest literature hes ever wrote. With pure determination Creole knows that there is nothing in this world that could stop him, but God!
