"[her] smooth, earthy voice and smart, wordy songs suggest Fiona Apple at certain times, Natalie Merchant at others." July 2004 Time Out New York 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, POP: Folky Pop
Details: Voter is Crystal's third album and marks an obvious departure from the production of it's predecessor, Bessie's Last Stand. Crystal Brandt writes and produces her own music and is the co-founder of Mungler Winslowe Records. She's originally from Maryland and got her start performing in bands at dive bars before making a move to just outside DC in 1998. In 2000, she moved to New York City, where she now resides.
