Details: Hailing out of Southwestern Ontario, Hello Bella is branching out into the Canadian Music Industry and diversifying themselves by re-sculpting the form of pop music. With their high-energy performances and catchy music, the band is creating quite a buzz. After spending months in the studio recording with Sarnia producer, Adam Miner, the 6 song EP titled That Girl has now hit the Canadian market. The band is now in preparation to distribute the CD to various media affiliates, and is already receiving positive feedback. According to the Windsor Star, "The songwriting is catchy ... accompanied by radio-ready production" Lead singer Stephanie Poorts powerhouse vocals are also being compared to the likes of pop/rock singer Pink and fellow Canadian rocker Avril Lavigne. The band was recently awarded a Canadian FACTOR grant for new talent in the Canadian music industry, which they have put towards production costs of the album. Setting their goals high for the next year, Hello Bella hopes to branch out into the Canadian market, making them known on a grander scale. Recent appearances include performing at this year's Sarnia Ribfest, sharing the stage with Kim Mitchell and April Wine. They also performed their song, Celebrity, on the set of the upcoming Sarnia film production called, Beside You. Hello Bella was recently selected to play at Canadian Indie Week in downtown Toronto. The date and venue are pending, but you can get the latest information by going to hellobella.net, where CDs can be purchased as well. The website provides links to Facebook, MySpace and PureVolume as well.
