"...solid, smart, clever, and even sometimes, downright sexy". 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, ROCK: Acoustic Details: NEXT LIVE PERFORMANCE - NOVEMBER 2ND 12PM @ FLAMINGO CANTINA on RED RIVER ST. DOWNTOWN, AUSTIN TX "...King Orba's music is really unique, interesting, special...but not only this...the whole release is simply, totally groovy!!" -Lord Litter "...The King is everywhere at once, with his other gigs keeping him very busy, but his music is the Thing, making it very difficult to describe. This is almost Classic Pop Rock verging on Pop Opera. We Like it That Much! We'd Love More From King Orba..." -The Fevered Brain of RadioMike "...there's so much out there to write and sing about. This may explain his prolific songwriting, but does nothing to explain his proficiency in relating an experience in such rich visual language. There are few musicians whose message comes across clearly without labored study. Every song of King Orba's that I've listened to receives this hallmark." -Excerpt from PUSH Magazine 02-03 RED LIGHTS is the new album from Austin based singer/songwriter King Orba, follow-up to the musicians 2003 release titled, HALF MAST. It contains twelve tracks, an interesting blend of tunes, including an overture and is adorn by cool artwork. It's quite the achievement in the frontiers of independent music. The entire experience seems to wind as an effortless stream through new territories, new horizons in what some consider today, the true indie music scene. Especially in the Rock genre. Or shall we say Contemporary Rock or Rock Americana? We'll let you be the judge. You can hear his sounds on CD Baby. -Sean Lennox VIBE News 02-04
