A soulful bluesy voice. "A compelling songwriter" Dirty Linen 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Blues, COUNTRY: Country Blues Details: Lisa Biales grew up in a musical family and began her career at age twelve playing guitar and singing for church services and weddings. Her earliest influences were The Beatles, and New Orleans style Dixieland-Jazz music. From the very first time Lisa picked up the guitar, she was inspired to write, consequently, Lisa has been singing, performing and recording her original music with the very best musicians for over 20 years. Lisa graced the stages in her teens singing Jazz Standards with her father's band and at the request and delight of the crowd, would step out on her own and sing her original tunes during the band breaks. Working as a studio musician, you may have heard Lisas voice in commercials, film, or on one of your favorite albums. Lisa's music is getting airplay around the world. Her simplistic musical arrangements have been called a work of art. Lisa's soulful bluesy voice is universal. It appeals to all who experience it.
