Comedy/Spoken Word with Musical songs 17 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Comedy, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Moxie More is Brooklyn Born, so is her mother and so is her father. So what?!! you ask. Soo... this is the theme! Pay attention, take notes, I'm talking here! Moxie attended PS 209 and JHS 43 (James J. Reynolds Junior High) in Sheepshead Bay from 1960 to 1969. She is a descendant of the Hebrew Tribe, Brooklyn Rez, sworn to carrying on the tradition of carrying on, for fun and entertainment profit. Moxie's father, Howard, graduated from Madison HS and her mother Leila, graduated from Erasmus. Moxie couldn't decide which high school to go to; Sheepshead Bay, Lincoln or the new experimental Dewey. Your author did not have to decide after all because her family moved to Connecticut where she went into New England culture shlock,er shock. The jury is still out as to whether she has recovered. Moxie's maternal grandfather Sol who spoke five languages, owned and operated a candy store luncheonette six blocks from Ebbets Field where Pee Wee Reese and Leo Durocher snuck Leila , age 9 into the Dodger games for free. The photograph you see on the Brooklyn Born album cover is Moxie's mother Leila a getting an autograph from Dodger Herman Franks. It was published in the Sunday News September 28,1941. The opininons you hear on this cd do not neccessarily reflect those of all Brooklynites, or even my relatives for that matter. Everybody's got their own point of view. This I did learn from my mother, "That's what makes horseracing"(the difference of opinion). What would the world be if everyone had the same opinion? BORING!!, and Fascist, some would say. We of the Brooklyn Born are here to make sure that doesn't happen. We are here to offer different opinions, which are often annoying to conservative and uptight others. This can actually be quite fun while being educational as well. Did I mention fun? Should you get offended, oh well, such is life. If that's the case I do not reccommend crossing the bridge into Brooklyn on your next trip to NYC. You'll find a whole lot of people

(about a million) who have the same smart-ass attitude, regardless of their point of view. This bonds us together even though we do not agree!! I love that about us. I think it's very cool. Brooklynites will most likely annoy the hell out of you by not being daunted by what you think, or by any social or peer pressure you can offer up. We think for ourselves in Brooklyn, we don't conform to the rest of the world and we don't really expect the world to conform to us . That is the magic of being from Brooklyn. We are different and we don't care. Remember also, that Brooklynites are not really recognized worldwide for their manners. We have a different set of them, apparently;...Our own code. I often think of Brooklyn as the Land of Subtlety and Refinement NOT!! Not that these are bad things, necessarily, they are just NOT BROOKLYN! And so without further ado I invite you to listen to these stories and songs about my Brooklyn, my family's and my parent's Brooklyn, and the Brooklyn you might all come to know and love. Buy the cd and support the Brooklyn Born!! Last note: This is sit down comedy, not stand-up. The author got very tired standing on her flat feet , and got clinically depressed from looking at (and smelling) the alcoholics and creeps in the audience. Therefore, the album may not be as funny as stand-up, but hopefully you will like it anyway. If this doesn't sell next time I will try laying down comedy, where I will at least be guaranteed some rest and the audience can benefit from my insights through channelled dreaming. In the tradition of the Marx Brothers, I did not rehearse these routines because it would have cost you extra...And the laugh tracks, well, you couldn't afford it!!
