Start with some PINK FLOYD, add a dash of RADIOHEAD, mix in some NIN and a bit of MASSIVE ATTACK; finally top it off with some PORTISHEAD, throw it thru an LA-3A and some 1/2" tape and your ready to serve up a MYSTERE meal. 15 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Experimental, ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo Details: Brilliantly unique. Pulsating heartbeat-like rhythms blend with dark, synth sounds leading into hypnotically catchy breakbeats that get your heart and your synapses moving. There is something wonderfully mesmerizing about the way these distorted, obscure beats are mixed with strange and eerie samples, creating hauntingly beautiful melodic sounds. Soundscapes. These chilled-out, yet disturbing beats crawl into your mind and what filters through are terrifying glimpses into the human psyche and the state of humanity and the world today. An unforgettable compilation of songs by a talented new musician, it's an album you can experience over and over again. This music gets into the bloodstream and in the wrong hands, could be dangerous.
