Ambient Chill Pop in the same family of music as Sade, Sting and Seal 5 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Lounge, POP: Delicate Details: There's an extraordinary sensation being created around Niles Thomas, the up and coming artist identified as SensuallyEclectic. Niles has revamped the idioms and attitudes of intelligent pop-ambient chill music with an enduring passion for stirring up a unique blend of sophistication, romance and style. With his sensuous lyrical approach and lustful sound, Niles Thomas' music is truly a taste of the forbidden fruit we all hunger for. His haunting, yet clear and smooth voice lies somewhere between romance and darkness. It is enticing, to say the least. "I'd like to think that my direction carries the same spirit as artists like Sade, Bryan Ferry, Seal, and Sting," says Thomas. His latest EP, Flower of Sin features just a small taste of what's to come from Niles Thomas. Although his primary concern lies within the lyrics and melody, he is definitely after something more "specific" with the sound of this new recording. Thomas says, "My approach has been to allow the material to just evolve and be true to myself and the music, trying to achieve a balance of tempos, subject matter, textures, emotions, etc." It is evident by listening to Flower of Sin, that his musical style is, SensuallyEclectic. Niles Thomas will move you.
