

Mp3 Robyn Pauhl - One For My Baby

DOWNLOAD HERE

At the age of 20, Robyn has performed with some of the top musicians in Jazz. Including, opening for jazz pianist and vocalist Carol Wellsman and performing with world renowned bassist Dave Holland. She is an excellent, emotional and passionate vocalist 9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Details: At present, Canadian singer Robyn Pauhl is involved in enough activities to make your head swim. Robyn is caught up in the hectic pursuit of attending Humber College on a full academic scholarship for vocal jazz performance, while maintaining a career as a much-booked singer throughout Ontario. Robyn began her career as a country singer and has moved her way gracefully into jazz and blues performance. At Humber, Robyn is the lead vocalist for the top ensemble in the school. She is a member of The Denny Christianson's Humber College Studio Jazz Ensemble. This group plays at numerous venues throughout the year including, Jazz FM 91.1 Sound of Toronto Jazz Concert Series at the Ontario Science Centre. The ensemble also backs-up guest artists such as Dave Holland and Renee Lee who are performing in concert at Humber this year. This group will also be recording a new CD in the spring at the CBC recording studio in Toronto. As Robyn attends Humber College she will continue to perfect her craft as a vocalist. She will attain the knowledge of theory, composition, arranging for small and large ensembles, as well as the art of improvisation. In February 2003 Robyn finished her first jazz and blues CD, which was officially released July 4, 2003. Since then Robyn has been featured on many television programs, magazines and newspaper articles. She has performed at many festivals and clubs and her CD "One For My Baby", has continuously been played on the radio across Canada. At just twenty, Robyn already bears some imposing credentials. She has opened shows for U.S. country stars George Jones at Lulu's in Kitchener, Loretta Lynn at Copps Coliseum in Hamilton and the International Center in Toronto. As well as for some eminent Canadian country acts such as Michelle Wright, Prairie Oyster, Jason McCoy,

Beverly Mahood, Jim Witter, jazz artist Carol Wellsman and most recently performed in concert with world renowned jazz bassist, Dave Holland. Her love for country started at age ten and she was cleaning house at singing competitions. Next she went on to placing first at the Canadian National Exhibition's Country Singing Contest. Then in 1997 she won the Ontario Country Music Association's Rising Star Award. At fifteen, Robyn decided to get some studio experience and went to Nashville to complete a six song music demo with Odie Blackmon. Robyn's love for music extended into her high school life where she was the lead singer for the school's jazz band. In 2000, Robyn joined the Hamilton All Star Jazz Band, as the lead singer for two years. They performed at many venues including Hamilton Place with the Philharmonic, the Rex Hotel in Toronto, Hess Village Jazz Festival, Redeemer College and Tivoli theatre. They also recorded a live jazz CD, which was released at the beginning of January 2003. "Performing and creating music is all I want to do", says Robyn. "To have people connect with your music feels great." An enthralling performer, Robyn has a voice that has enough power and range to make it worth remarking on. Robyn sounds as if her passion could swallow the world. What lifts her performances miles above nostalgia is that she delivers her feelings with astonishing power and ebullience. A well-mannered young woman, cheerful and witty, not only enjoys jazz and country music, but is attracted to the contemporary music of Sheryl Crow, India Arie, Alicia Keys, Eric Clapton, Eagles, Aerosmith, Janis Joplin, and Susan Tedeschi (a blues guitarist and singer). Robyn at the age of eleven was playing and singing across southern Ontario. Since then her mature voice and attitude towards the music business propelled her quickly to the forefront of the Canadian Music scene. Robyn, a high achiever applied herself to the "ins and outs" of the music business quickly laying the foundation for a long and successful career in the industry. A talented girl beautiful on the inside and outside, Robyn has left audiences wanting to hear just one more song!

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: