Mr Wee and Boo are genuinely sincere, exceptional, charismatic, and knowledgeable characters created by the founders of WeeTeachIt. They were developed with the belief that both children and adults would be captured by their uniqueness, and could be used as motivational tools to inspire parents to discover new strategies to help their children, as well as encourage children to yearn for never-ending knowledge. Mr Wee and Boo's first CD is like no other! How, you ask? Well, we know using music to teach is both fun and engaging. So, we created a CD which emphasizes the correct pronunciation of letter names and sounds, eliminates the elemeno problem, helps distinguish long and short vowels, and teaches the alphabet backwards and forwards. Wee-phabet Songs with a Fun Twist is compiled of familiar, upbeat melodies which will have both children and adults smiling, dancing, wiggling, and giggling as they sing along to these lively little ditties! Are you ready to take your learning a step further? If so, come discover our hands-on activities on our website which were built around research-based methods and address the audio, visual, and tactile styles of learning. These interactive and fun activities will have you and your wee one exploring the world of letters, building vocabulary, and unlocking those hidden musical and rhythmic intelligences.
