

The Chums Of Scranton High Out For The Pennant - Donald Ferguson

Too bad that rain had to come, and spoil our practice for today, boys! "Yes, and there's only one more chance for a work-out between now and the game with Belleville on Saturday afternoon, worse luck, because here it's Thursday." "We need all the practice we can get, because if that O.K. fellow, who dropped in to see us from Belleville, tells the truth, both his club and Allandale are stronger than last year. Besides, I hear they have each set their hearts on winning the championship of the Three Town High School League this season." "For one, I know I need more work at the bat. I've improved some, but I'm not satisfied with myself yet." "You've improved a whole lot, Owen!" "That's right, 'Just' Smith, he's made such progress in bunting, and picking out drops and curves and fast ones, under the watchful eye of our field captain, Hugh Morgan here, that several other fellows on the nine are below him in batting average right now, and I regret to say I'm one of the lot."
