ALBUM ANALYSIS: Adding this set of tunes to the already diverse Bobby Rivers collection leaves one thinking, "Just how many ideas does this guy have?" ODE TO FIVE-SIX (I believe since Bobby Rivers is from Green Bay that this would reference Green Bay Packers Linebacker Nick Barnett's club called "Five-Six", which had its liquor license taken away by racially motivated council members. The Hip-Hop riff gives it away.) SUNRISE AT SUNSET (Taken from the TWENTY YEARS SOUNDTRACK, this is called "Sunrise And Sunset" there. Here, it is minus the drums and bass tracks.) VIVATARA (vivid sounding intro from the sound vault, unreleased) UN MOMENTO (Original version, this was edited into "Love Collage" with Lyrics added, for the ROLL LAND OCTAVE album) COMPASSIONATE MAN (had lyrics but was dropped from the "Bobby Rivers" album due to the vocal track sounding waaay too much like Neil Diamond to be original. It is fused together with a sound vault recording called "Fill" here.) DAYDREAM (sound vault recording reminds of Yanni pieces - unreleased) THE PIANO ROOM (small Casio CX keyboard sounded just like the piano rooms in college, this was used as the intro to "Up and Down" on the ROLL LAND OCTAVE album. It also was the intro of a longer version of "The Piano Room" on the BASEMENT DAYS album, as well as the out of print ODYSSEY album.) DELUXE (original title, this was edited down to become the theme song for the Kewaunee Idol singing competition which Bobby hosts every year in Luxemburg WI) THE JOURNEY (reminds of the rock supergroup JOURNEY and their 80's style - unreleased) SALSA DIABLO (original title, this salsa was used to make the song "Masquerade Party" when lyrics were added. It appeared on the ROLL LAND OCTAVE album.) FIFTY BOSSES (unreleased sound vault recording reminds of 50's rock and Bruce Springsteen.) ODYSSEY (sound vault recording)
