Details: "David Rovics is the peace poet and troubador of our time." Cindy Sheehan "Listen to David Rovics." Pete Seeger "David's ability to capture the imagination, fascination and participation of elementary school aged children is obvious from everything he does before his opening song until the last tune leaves his guitar... Children who see him perform more than once shout out song requests when they see him and sing along quickly to their favorite lyrics... While the themes of many of his original songs are silly and carefree he also includes songs that challenge children and their families to think about bigger, global issues... David's shows are full of wit and charm that makes his audience members of all ages glad they came out for the show. I highly recommend hiring David as a singer/songwriter for a one time event or regular schedule of performances." Karen Hery, founder, Sunnyside Family Swap Shop and Play Space
