BIOGRAPHY With 25 years of musical experience between us, it was only right that we form a trio; from this union the GC sound was born. Our mission is to not only bring quality sounds to the masses, but to have longevity in this business. Our sound is a conglomeration of funk, jazz, soul, r&b, reggae, and hip-hop all rolled into one. GC is passionate about our product and absolutely will not release a track if it's wack.... G.C. Inc. is the name of our group, it is an acronym for Gods' Child Incorporated. Lonzo- AKA "Da Conduit" has been in the game since the age of 11. He was a member of the school orchestra, marching and jazz band for 6 years. "Da Conduit" embraced hip-hop in 1986, formed a group with his two cousins Cee Money and Kutthroat. His crew came within days of signing a record deal with an independent label, but internal squabbles involving other artists on the label squashed any chance of a record deal. "Da Conduit" broke from the group and decided to go back to school. After a 13 year hiatus "Da Conduit" came out of retirement and started work on the Evolution LP and co-founded the label G.C. INC., "Da Conduit" plays the keyboard and possesses songwriting skills. Aaron- AKA "Xaveous" lends out his services by giving us a discriminating ear; he's also equally well versed on lead guitar and drums. He is currently working on an album with his band that has yet to be named. Bertran- AKA "Sneek" got into the game at 10 years old. He embraced hip-hop, formed a coalition with his high school buddies and made lots of good music. He joined the Navy and took his rough and rugged style overseas, visiting countries like Australia, Thailand, Singapore, Japan, and etc.. upon returning to the states Sneek joined up with EPIDEMIC MASSIVE and reasserted his position in hip-hop. Sneek continues to plant the seed by making radio appearance like his recent appearance on 90.7 FM. Divine Forces Radio. He's done a few shows and has the stage presence to move the crowd, besides his incredible skills on the mic, he is a gifted sequencer and beat maker.
