Some of my fondest memories, the weekend family jam session. Uncle Archie playin' his guitar and picking The Wild Wood Flower. The sound brought with them from the eastern mountains of Kentucky. That back porch swing music. My mother singing now she sings in heaven. My family tree dates back close to four hundred years in the good ole USA. Cherokee Indian, German, Irish and Italian, I spent several years as a child in speech class it seems that my teacher did not appreciate that southern slang as I was told. As I always said, "It's not my fault that I was born in Michigan!" All is well that ends well. I really hope you enjoy my Solon Country.
