

Mp3 Martha Brickman - Baroque Gems Of The 18th Century

DOWNLOAD HERE

This passionate and lyrical interpretation of music by Bach and other 18th century masters will open your ears to the magic of the solo harpsichord repertoire. 16 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Early Music, CLASSICAL: Bach Details: One of Canada's foremost harpsichord players, Martha Brickman is known for her expressive interpretation of early music. She was born in Montreal and began studying the piano and oboe before taking up the harpsichord with Feruccio Vignanelli in Rome and then with Kenneth Gilbert in Montreal at the Conservatoire de Musique et d'Art Dramatique. She was the winner of three European prestigious harpsichord competitions in Bruges (Belgium), Paris and Munich. As a Canada Council grant recipient she participated in two films for the French radio network and performed in major networks in Europe and North America, including a performance in Carnegie hall. Resident of Vancouver since 1987, she has performed for Vancouvers Masterpiece Music, Early Music Vancouver, UBCs Noon-Hour Concerts, Douglas Colleges Noon-Hour Concerts, CBCs Arts National and Westcoast Performance performance. She collaborated with renowned recorder player Horacio Franco in Mexico City and also performed the Bach's Goldberg Variations there. As a member of the Trio Amalie she has been performing locally with cellist Laura Kramer and violinist Jenny Essers since 2004. Martha Brickman teaches at the Vancouver Academy of Music where she annually presents workshops and masterclasses on historical performance practice.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

