Bess - born Robert Charles Bess is a Rhythm and Blues artist, that is a mixture of Old and New Schools. With singing that started as an adolescent in church BESS has made himself into a self-sufficient producer and artist. With talents such as playing piano and drums, as well as being a songwriter and performer, Bess represents the total package that any label is looking for. With over 10yrs of experience in the industry as well as having been previously signed to Warlock Records with the group HOOPIa (a Hip-Hop Rap Duo) in 1993. BESS has transformed his experiences in life to a vibe and a message that he calls ghetto funk. With musical influences such as Michael Jackson, Prince, and Al Jareau, BESS is the Gap that bridges the old school R&B to today's new Hip Hop/R&B sound. With a new millennium dawning Bess has what it takes to not only fit in but to make his mark on a wide-open industry. With several projects already completed, BESS is on target to impact the Summertime R&B scene. With his solo album completed, Bess is primed for a major explosion in 2003. With songs ranging from Smooth Jazz, to Hip-Hop, to Dance, Bess leaves no stone unturned in his production repertoire. With a guest appearance on the upcoming Divine Entertainment release the R.E.V. -The Last Millennium, he even shows his gospel roots by lacing two tracks with his smooth-laid back vocals. Bess has and will continue to strive to make his mark as he climbs the ladders of respect from both the music community and the public. With a drive and determination that never stops, Bess is ready to do what he was born to do; make music and take it to the masses.
