Singer/songwriter and mother Sandy Champion values the sweet innocence of childhood, and strives to honor the intelligence of children. She also recognizes that young children love the exciting beats and rhythms of the popular music teens and adults love. In her latest CD entitled DANCE PARTY, Sandy has successfully bridged the gap between "Hip" and "Innocent", to create fun and exciting music for children of all ages. Sandy has written numerous original songs for children, as well as applying her own sparkle and twist to traditional nursery rhymes. Sandy has created a sound that appeals across generations, yet honors the innocence of your youngest children. From babies to grandparents, her music will give you the chance to sing and dance together.

ABOUT SANDY: Sandy Champion has been performing professionally for over 20 years. She made her solo debut as a guest soloist with the Phoenix Symphony while still in high school. Sandy has a Masters Degree in Flute Performance from the University of Southern California. While studying to be an orchestral flutist in L.A., Sandy began writing music for children and developing voices for children's projects . Inspired by her own children, Sandy has decided to dedicate her talents to children.

A NOTE FROM SANDY: Forgive me, but I am going to cut right to the chase! I created DANCE PARTY, because I had enough of listening to goofy children's music. I love the beat of pop music, but I don't want my kids singing some of those lyrics either! I am an accomplished professional musician with a Master's Degree in Flute Performance from USC, and yet the greatest musical fun I have is singing with my kids! I take children seriously, I take music seriously, and I definitely take fun seriously. Therefore, I call my music seriously fun music! I have found a way to slip in the sillies, that's clever enough for all ages to enjoy. While I have written my own original children's music, I went straight to the classic nursery rhymes for this project. (with the exceptions of the two songs my kids wrote: "Buble-ey", and "Funky Funky Time...") If my point was to get the whole family involved, I wanted something the whole family would know and instantly be able to sing together.....kids, parents, grandparents.....the whole family! I had a blast putting my own twist on the nursery rhymes. Who said children's music can't be slick, well produced, fun to sing, clever, and hip? My goal was to create something to sing with my kids, that made us all feel good. And my kids and I have had a blast with the music on this CD. So have all the kids at their school, grades Pre-K through six! If you want to sing and dance with your kids, and actually enjoy yourself.....get your groove on with DANCE PARTY! I've heard reports of grown men and women actually catching themselves singing my Reggae twist on Skip To My Lou when they least expect it! So be warned.....it's catchy! TESTIMONIALS: My family has been listening to Sandy Champion's DANCE PARTY and we love it! She is able to keep nursery songs fun for the older kids as well. I had no idea what to expect, but we were all groovin' on the way home.
