Details: Another new CD I've been listening to in recent days is the new release by Sarah Elizabeth entitled "We're All In This Together". This CD marks Sarah's 10th year as a dulcimer player - having started playing at the tender age of 5. Sarah is another of those who was privileged to "learn at the feet of the master", David Schnauffer, and this CD is a strong reminder of that influence. But she is also finding her own unique voice - both figuratively and literally, as this CD includes a number of vocals by Sarah. These include the title cut, as well as "Red Rocking Chair", and an astounding a capella vocal arrangement of "End of the World". Move over Allison Kraus!
