Liz Miller, a Philadelphia based songwriter, writes songs in every genre and works with a variety of talented singers. Liz conceived the project on a long car ride when nothing on the radio that day seemed even remotely appealing. She wrote the project with only one singer in mind Andrew Burgoyne, a Los Angeles based singer-songwriter, has been compared to the legendary jazz vocalist Chet Baker. His smooth, breathy voice is hypnotic and sympathetic. Andrew has sung in film soundtracks and wowed audiences from N.Y. to L.A. with his casual cool. Anthony Newett, a Philadelphia based producer-musician-songwriter, has hundreds of cds to his massive resume as well as film and TV credits. He has most recently been nominated for a Grammy award for his outstanding work on the independent film STRUT. There and Back is a cd to be enjoyed at a quiet gathering, alone with a martini, or slow danced with a stranger
