The only band to successfully rhyme "hemline" and "Kremlin" (krem-o-line), Binge is an independent pop/rock band based in Hoboken, NJ USA whose songs have been heard on popular TV shows Dawson's Creek, Felicity, American Embassy and Party of Five. Their music has been compared to the likes of Fountains of Wayne, Coldplay, Travis, The Hives, Fab Faux, Oasis, REM, Dandy Warhols, Del Amitri, James and Semisonic. You can also hear heavy influences of the Beatles, Byrds and the Kinks in their singer/songwriting style. Binge has served up an exciting CD featuring the single "Anna Kournikova", a fun pop rock tune about wanting to be Anna's ball boy. The music video, that contains rare footage of Anna on the beach in Mexico with the band, appeared on Fox's Best Damn Sports Show Period. The video reached #1 on Lycos' Top Ten Videos for 9 weeks. The band, around since 1993, has received international attention as a result (see articles from your country below). This CD also contains other great new Binge tracks including "Luv Is A Three Letter Word", "Hey Babe", "Mood Swings" and killer remixes from earlier Binge CDs. Other tracks "Lately", "Surrounded" and "The First Time" have all appeared on Dawson's Creek and Party of Five. There is a cool electronic version of the song as an added bonus. A rare limited-edition slim-line "Anna" single was released in Ireland through RMG Chart Entertainment! Only 1000 copies exist in the world. Coming soon - the Maria Sharapova song! By the way, get a free download of Binge's "Joey Girl" while it is still available at dawsonscreekmusic.com. Catch this great underground band before they hit the mainstream.
