Collette Savard's debut recording features solid song writing, catchy melodies and engaging storytelling. Colored with captivating touches of mandolin, lap steel, and the harmonies of jazz, it is a unique blend of pop and traditional influences. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: When Collette Savard was a small child she only wanted to do two things, to have tea parties and to write songs. Realizing that "tea party hostess" was an unlikely path to success, she left behind the cucumber sandwiches lumps of sugar to pursue her passion for songwriting. Collette's debut CD, Most Improved Cheerleader, was released on June 2, 2005. The album's title, inspired by a somewhat ironic award Collette received in junior high, hints at her clever, frank and reflective style. The culmination of what Collette has learned so far about life and song writing; Most Improved Cheerleader explores many themes from revenge to religion of course a sprinkling of love longing. Embracing influences from across the musical spectrum, it mixes poetic ballads, sexy blues, funky pop anthems and heartfelt folk into a fresh, intimate experience. Collette's intelligent hooks, insightful lyrics and silky voice, coupled with the multi- instrumental stylings and production savvy of her partner and collaborator John Zytaruk make for a startlingly refined debut effort. The album also features the accompaniment of several world class musicians including bassist Chris Gartner (Kevin Hearn's Thinbuckle, Tasa), drummer Adam Warner (White Cowbell Oklahoma), vocalist Leah Salomaa and, most notably, Canadian jazz legend Guido Basso on flugelhorn and chromatic harmonica. Most Improved Cheerleader heralds the arrival of a significant new songwriting talent. This album marks just the beginning of Collette's musical journey those who travel with her are sure to be rewarded.
