Striving to make every song sound genuine, Corey puts his heart and soul into creating a unique sound that will inspire his audience. 15 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, ROCK: Extended Jams Details: Corey Schneider is an eighteen year old up and coming commercial alternative artist who expresses his remarkable maturity in his intricately woven songs. Corey has been playing the piano since he was five years old, and whenever he was given a piece of music to play, he would meticulously tweak the melodies so that he would ultimately produce a song of his own. With his unconventional fingering and score revisions, Corey continued to expand contemporary and classical pieces. Using this creativity, Corey eventually began to write his own music starting at the age of 12. Striving to make every song sound genuine, Corey puts his heart and soul into creating a unique sound that will inspire his audience. Corey writes his own scores and lyrics, sings his own songs, and plays the keyboard for all of his original music, which continues to grow in leaps and bounds. Among finally orchestrating a band for the first time in his musical career, Corey is determined to transform his material into the progressive, sophisticated music it was intended to be.
