A Solo Studio-Production of the exceptional Argentine Drummer Composer, all own compositions with South American rhythms, modern sound, improvisation and a little touch of World Fusion. Daniel Messina - drummer of Barbara Dennerlein for many years - 9 MP3 Songs LATIN: Latin Jazz, JAZZ: Jazz Fusion Details: Through this one Solo CD -Production the Argentine Daniel Messina achieved the place as drummer of the famous German organist Barbara Dennerlein. This recording is the result of a first period of three and a half years out of Argentina, with all the desire to feel that I make a big step forward, far away from home. I dedicate this CD to those who fight in order to be musicians and without being able to buy a good instrument, make music with heart, with soul, only with the necessary, that is the truth! This CD is dedicated to those who don't give up, those who don't care about prejudices, to those who still stay being honest musicians. Thank you for listening. D.M Daniel Messina was born on April 9th, 1965 in Jos C. Paz, Buenos Aires, Argentina. At the age of six, he began to play drums and guitar. He learned to play drums on his own for almost ten years by playing along different records and using a book by Gene Krupa. His first teacher for about three years was Omar Belmonte. After that, he studied five year longs with Elias "Chiche" Heger at the Escuela Nacional de Bateria y Percusion. During that time, he played in different bands like for example Apertura, Quinteto el Quartetazo or the Baden Jazz Quartett. He also wrote a workshop column in the music magazine "El Musiquero" from October 1989 until June 1991. At the age of 26, Daniel Messina emigrated to Germany. He played there in Real Blues Band, with Yanomani and the Pablo Vazquez Trio. Since 1993 Daniel Messina is a drum teacher in the drum department Stuttgart. An important step in his career is the co-operation with the renowned jazz Barbara Dennerlein since 1995, with whom he recorded her current duo CD "Love Letters" in 2001. In 1996 he founded the Daniel Messina Band, which is a continuation of his project with own compositions and arrangements that he has already started in Argentina in 1989. In 1999 the CD "Imgenes" was released. In January 2001 Daniel Messina started with his band the concert series "Jazz Edge on Saturday" at Buch Julius in Stuttgart, which meanwhile has become an in-scene meeting point and which is already successfully entering upon its second year. Since the start of Jazz Network Radio in September 2001 he has directed the editorship of the Latin channel and since February 2002 also the editorship of the drummer channel, Drummers Special.
