GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Fred Cacciotti's music ministry spans more than two decades. He is a member of the Society of Composers, Authors Music Publishers of Canada and the Canadian Gospel Music Association. In 2002, he was nominated for Songwriter of the Year by the United Catholic Music and Video Association in Washington DC. The same year saw him lead his former group, Spirit in Motion at WYD culminating with the Papal Mass at Toronto Ontario Canada. He served as a music consultant on the Planning Committee and was blest to receive a Papal Medallion for his efforts during this historic event. This will be a treasured memento with the passing of Pope John Paul 11 in 2005. In 2003 his CD Heavenly Eyes, Heavenly Hands was nominated again by UCMVA for International Album of the Year and in 2005 he won the International Artist of the Year award. Before his return to the church in 1984, Fred was involved in many aspects of the secular music business from writing radio and television commercials, recordings and performing at major concerts. He shared the stage with some of the biggest names in popular music at that time, like the Guess Who (American Woman), Janice Joplin and Neil Diamond. Leaving that behind, Fred believes, was a special gift that has allowed him to write music that inspires a deeper faith in God. Allowing the Spirit to do His work Fred never sits down to specifically write a particular song. The inspiration comes in abundance from the scripture readings at each Sundays mass and Gods presence everywhere. (He currently serves as Music Minister at St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church in Oshawa, Ontario). In this respect his current release Heavenly Eyes, Heavenly Hands is truly inspired. It crosses all denominational lines so that any Christian will feel right at home listening to the scripture based material. He is currently recording his next CD River of Mercy that should be released in May of 2006. For more information on Freds ministry go to
