From humble beginnings singing on her backyard swing, and serenading milk cows on her family's dairy farm in Arkansas, to current performances and recordings, music colors the tapestry of Janie's life. She has performed all across the country from intimate cafs in Arkansas, large performance halls in Minnesota, to outdoor rallies in Seattle. She possesses a charmingly shy stage presence, and when Janie closes her eyes and strums her first notes, her listeners become captivated by the passion and sincerity of her gift. She is a natural. Janie says, "Life, to me, is about learning to love with balance and harmony. In my own journey, it is about finding those things that enliven my heart, and finding creative ways to pursue them. I truly feel that when I am doing what I love, and am giving to life with an open heart, I am being the most open instrument of love that I can possibly be. And in the act of giving, I am blessed with healing and loving energy. It's a nurturing cycle." I am grateful that I get to work with music in this life, that it is the language my heart chooses to express itself. If all of life is music, then my hope is to hear as many of its melodies as possible." -Janie- ----- What People Say About Janie's Music: "Janie's music touched me. I have been hearing her voice singing ever since she performed - that rich, loving, deeply moving quality that goes right to the heart, with words to match. She is truly gifted, and a gift for us all." -Janet Doane, poet author, "Almond Essence" "I'll acknowledge that it was not until this evening that I opened your disc, HIGHER GROUND. I've listened to it for the past three hours. You are a very, VERY talented songwriter and singer, and your backup group is fabulous. This is music that this old 62 year old can relate to. I love your music, your approach to the song, and the craft you show in assembling the words. It touched me deeply." -David O. "I finally got a chance to listen to a couple of your CDs. Wow. You have such an incredible voice and the love really comes through when you sing. Thanks so much for recording your gift and making it available to all of us. You go girl!" -Mick "I've been listening to your CDs, especially Higher Ground. I just wanted to share that your music has a deep healing power to it. I felt it would be important for you to know this." -Brita B.
