

Mp3 Late Tuesday - Looking For Flowers Again

DOWNLOAD HERE

YOUNG INDIGO GIRLS HANGING OUT WITH SARAH MCLACHLAN. Original folk-pop music. Beautiful 3 part harmonies. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, FOLK: like Joni Details: Dana {piano, keyboard, rhodes, vocals Tara {acoustic guitar, piano, rhodes, vocals Jocelyn {acoustic electric guitar, vocals "... [Late Tuesday's songs] are ethereal things of beauty - wrapping acoustic guitars and soaring harmonies around catchy hooks and romantic charm." What's Up Magazine, 2002 -Winner of the 2002 Emerging Musical Artists Award from the Northwest Recording Academy (GRAMMY organization) -Net Music Countdown award winner, 2002 ::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::: Late Tuesday is made up of the songwriting, vocal, and instrumental talents of three women - Jocelyn, Dana, and Tara. The camaraderie between the three is evident through their humor and sincerity before a crowd. All three members met at Western WA U. The band was formed in February of 2000, shortly after the release of Tara Ward's solo album "Credo" on which Dana Little and former member/fiddle player Caitlin Evanson played. The band released their debut album "Late Tuesday" in April of 2001 which has sold 3000+ copies. Their newest album, "looking for flowers again" was released in May 2002, and has received great reviews as well as recognition from the Recording Academy (Grammy Organization) for the Washington State 2002 Emerging Musical Artists Award. The new full length CD of 11 original songs has sold over 2000 copies. Playing shows regionally and locally to support the album, Late Tuesday continues to win over audiences and reviewers alike. They will continue to tour the Pacific Northwest and the whole West coast (and beyond) in 2003 ::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::: latetuesday.com bluetreeartists.com

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: