Performer Magazine West Coast - "... The poetry in their lyrics is poignant and heart-wrenching...." The Owl Mag- "... exquisitely crafted harmonies..." Mia and Jonah have come a long way from the innocence of their debut album, "Shine I". Yet, the honesty remains, weathered by time and experience. Mia and Jonah's 2nd album "Rooms for Adelaide" again incorporates the talents of artists John Hanes (drums-Bonnie Raitt, Richard Thompson), Seth Ford-Young (upright bass-Tom Waits), and Myles Boisen(electric guitar/banjo-Tom Waits). Since their arrival in the Bay Area, Mia and Jonah have shared stages with Ben Harper, Michael Franti and Spearhead, Jolie Holland, Toshi Reagon, Erika Lockett, and Austin Willacy. They have performed venues ranging from Bay Area's Cafe Du Nord to NYC's Bitter End. They have been compared to artists such as Hem, Damion Rice, The Waifs and Cowboy Junkies.
