N-Side delivers a gem that features his thought-provoking poetry covering topics we all think about, but won't talk about in a non-aggressive, but inviting simple style. 14 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: With Music, URBAN/R&B: Neo-Soul Details: This CD produced by jazz/poet N-Side, highlights his thought-provoking poetry covering topics we all think about, but won't talk about and is done in his usual non-aggressive, simple style. It is still true to spoken art, and performed within a more diverse musical atmosphere different from his more noted straight jazz/poetry vibe. The neo-soul/nu-jazz/hop music collaboration with Ricardo Love, who plays all instruments on the tracks (except for tracks 4 and 9, the beats were produced by newcomer beat producer Russell Case), help create a musical landscape that still helps to create the symbiotic relationship between words and music heard on other N-Side CDs. They are done in a reflective, simple and groove tasteful style. Listeners will love the funk vibe on "Bad Manners" and the hip-hop feel to "Hero, I Know". N-Side shines with his honest lyrics on the kick-off number "What I Know About Love (I Learned From You)". Another great surprise is the latin guitar flavored "How Can I Be Sure?", a solo instrumental performance track featuring Ricardo Love. So, please accept this invitation by the words of jazz/poet N-Side, and listen as we try to help you create your own true groovin atmosphere. The elements are here, in this CD
