Summery, dreamy, sometimes ambient, spontaneous, light, sometimes psychedelic instrumental music 11 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Contemporary, NEW AGE: Ambient Details: Poostosh has emerged from interminable improvisations in front of mixing console of the booth of the one very respectable Moscow club /theatre, where we all worked (one of us worked under the same roof, but in another organisation) . Initially we were called "Dark Brigade", but it was short moment. The name "Poostosh" appeared in 2002. In Russian it means - uncultivated plot or a heath. We've played and recorded in a lot of different styles without any mixing, in one cut, quickly created the sound of a compositions due to our mood in that moment. In 2005, I (Mikhail Salnikov, also the head of such projects as MOX, QUTH, Tooth Kink(monstaar.com)) decided to establish a new label - Untime Records to issue music of Poostosh first of all. With support of my friends, "Untime " album revealed itself for listeners. "...haunting, childhood nostalgia ambience, should your childhood have been perpetually stuck in Autumn, on your back, in marram grass." (Piano Magic)
