Acoustic-based songwriting spinning tales of the true, the not-so-true, the shoulda-been-true and true crime. Soulful, stirring vocals and rootsy guitars meet powerful storytelling. 9 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Rock Details: Rick Miller is a Seattle-based singer and songwriter who specializes in telling stories and painting pictures drawn from real life. Armed with an acoustic guitar, a gorgeous voice and a keen sense of irony, Miller sets out to document the real and the surreal tales that surround us. Aided by a cast of Seattle's finest musicians, these songs straddle several American musical styles, seamlessly moving between the twangy, the bluesy and the foot-stompin corners of the musical map. "Miller's tunes sport clever lyrics and fetching melodies." --Seattle Times "...an infectious non-sequitur spirit, and some terrific, wistfully irreverant melodies." --Seattle Weekly
