Southern, soul-delivering jazz, r&b a touch of blues for those who love Anita Baker and similar artists. 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: JS RECORDS PRESENT SYNETHIA Ms. Synethia had a very good set out on JS Records, in 1990 featuring "You Were Doin Bad When I Metcha", "In My Arms, It Be's That Way Sometimes and a gutsy blues "What A Mean Feeling". While touring Spain for the last 3 years, Synethia put together a dynamic Southern Soul CD with a touch of Jazz Blues. First out the box is "Big Car" where Synethia tells us just what she wants from a man. Followed by "You're My Lover", the mood turns appropriately down-tempo for "Erotic Night" and "I Don't Have To Run Away'. The title cut is a feel good number "Live It Love It Ev'ry Moment Of It". "I'm Sorry Baby" and "Never Knew Love" are two great ballads written by the lady herself. Vickie McKisic penned "Give Me That Good Love" and "Nobody Knows" (as to what goes on in my house). "Lovey Dovey Baby" and "Ain't Nothing Wrong (with you lovin me)" are two great blues followed by and instrumental jazz feel of "I'm Sorry Baby". Synethia has performed concerts featuring Betty Wright, Denise Lasalle, Solomon Burke, Johnny Taylor, Buddy Guy, Dorothy Moore, Marvin Sease, Clarence Carter, Little Milton and a host of others.
