FAME is a singer, dancer, songwriter, music producer, and actor that has phenomenal abilities. Born and raised in Brooklyn, NY this all around entertainer has accomplished goals that many performers dream of. From 1991-2000 he lived and performed throughout Japan, Thailand, Singapore, and Malaysia. During his travels he recorded sound tracks for Sony Play station and he also played a part in commercials as an actor and dancer for Sony Play Station II, Yonex, and Cup Of Noodle. Teds handsome and commercial look afforded him the opportunity to grace Bill Boards and posters for Cup Of Noodles, and Pentax Ads, and he also modeled for one of Japans renowned clothing designers U-MI, and Mens Magazine. Ted E. Fame released his first CD entitled Cool Sexy in the year 2003. The contemporary r&b album was well received and he performed as opening acts for major recording artist Jocelyn Brown, Jodie Watley, The Commodores, D Train, The Ohio Players, Harold Melvin The Blue Notes, and Coko Of S.W.V. He performed at various night clubs and concert halls such as the Key Note, Bayside Jenny and the Oasis. Lets take a minute and reflect on this young mans stage performance. It is pulsating and energetic. Usher Justin Timberlake move over. His show possesses non-stop exhilarating dance routines, which will make you sweat while watching him. He just doesnt stop moving. Let's give respect where it is due. Ted's talent landed him a spot in the world renowned singing group " The Platters" What an honor. He performed all over the world singing their hits My Prayer, Only You, and Smoked Gets In Your Eyes. One can only imagine how much knowledge and experience he gained from performing with a group of that stature. Today Ted is embarking on a solo career. He is currently in the recording studio putting the finishing touches on his new CD, and he is looking forward to bringing his talent and experience to the r&b contemporary market.
