A man who thought he had life figured out just met a woman who proved him wrong! Kindergarten teacher Grace Adams wants to turn over a new leaf. She's hoping a new school and a new apartment will de-magnetize the loser magnet she seems to possess. According to a student's mother, she's cursed. All it would take is a simple ceremony, some friends and a teeny-tiny bonfire in a coffee can to shake it. Within a few moments her apartment is engulfed in smoke, her fire alarm is blaring, and she can't stop laughing because she really should have known better. The next thing she knows someone is busting through her door to save the day. That someone is firefighter Eddie Mancilla. He has one thing on his mind: fire chief. It's been a family tradition for generations. He's not about to jeopardize it for his former high-school crush. Eddie doesn't believe in curses or have time to rekindle a relationship with Grace. But as the reunion combusts, Eddie has to douse a lot more than structure fires, now he has to quench the fire he has blazing for Grace. Once they unite it's going to be a four-alarm situation. Grace is under his skin and unfortunately her bad luck seems to have spread. to him!
