SHE LEARNED THE SECRETS OF WITCHCRAFT, BUT NOT LOVE! A whole new, deeper chapter unfolds in the spellbinding saga of an immortal sorcerer and a reincarnated witch who are star-crossed lovers struggling against the machinations of the demon Asmodeus. Book Four tells the story of Morgaine's incarnation in the present, from her childhood encounters with fairies who promise to make her a sorceress, to the fulfillment of that promise when, as an adult, she is called to the otherworld where, with another young witch, Gretchen, she learns all the secrets of magic at The University of Sorcery. There her teachers expound the spells and philosophy of thaumaturgy, while setting tests of skill and character for Morgaine and Gretchen. While there, Morgaine also meets and falls in love with Michael, a sorcerer from the middle ages who was granted a thousand years of life by the demon Asmodeus. When she leaves the otherworld, Morgaine is heartbroken, believing that she has lost him forever. Then, she encounters Michael again, now a well-known psychic married to the beautiful, innocent Melody. Morgaine and Michael can't resist each other and renew their affair. She wants him more than anything in the universe. All Morgaine has to do is use her magic to win him away from Melody. But, she swore an oath that if she ever uses her powers to work black magic instead of white, the demons will own her forever. Asmodeus millennia long plan is coming to fruition at last!
