10 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, POP: with Live-band Production Details: Her debut album is called Passenger and New Zealanders have let Carlys music take them on one melody-filled journey. But shes not the kind of girl who can be taken for a ride. Carly Binding is determined, self-assured and she sure knows how to write a pop-song or 10! Since Passenger was released in June 2003 the Platinum certified album produced 4 chart-topping singles in New Zealand. The first track Alright With Me was number 1 in the Radio Charts for 3 weeks, it was a Top 10 Hit and spent 20 weeks in the National Top 50 Singles Chart. We Kissed spent 5 weeks at number 1 on the Radio Charts, reached number 2 on the AC Chart and was Top 10 in the Pop Chart. Love Will Save Me was a Number One Airplay hit as well as This Is It. The Australian Music Industry has already had an impressive taste of the Opera schooled singer when she played at a Melbourne Showcase, supporting Paul Kelly. In New Zealand Carly played support for Bryan Adams, Bic Runga and Ronan Keating. Her first two singles We Kissed and Alright With Me made impressive in-roads into the Australian Airplay Top 50. So lets see what makes her tick! At the age of 13 Mum didnt put any rules on me. She let me go. And I think I was less rebellious than other teenagers because of that. Carlys upbringing was full of the arts, both performing and visual. Her mother was a singer, dancer and actress. Dad, a painter, was put on a pedestal by the young Carly after the marriage split and he moved away when she was 3. I saw Dad again when I was 10. It was so exciting. I remembered him by his paintings. Hed left Mum a landscape hed painted before I was born. Now that I know him I have him on a pedestal because of his ability as an artist. I have 20 of Dads works, I love them. Theyre very aggressive images machine guns, war, technology mixed with mythology. He has a genius that hopefully, one day Ill tap into! Her fathers music still resonates, too. He used to listen to Randy Newman, Bruce Springsteen, Simon and Garfunkel. Great song-writers. Carlys childhood was transient, she attended many schools and was home schooled some of the time. Because of this, she was a loner, but it was probably this independent quality that gave her maturity beyond her years, the ability to observe and impartiality. Essential traits for a song-writer. I reached the age of reason very young. I didnt understand other kids lack of logic! Id be in the school yard trying to understand why they couldnt just get along! Its obvious that Carly Binding is a thinker, but the lyrics in her music are simple. The more you write songs the more specific you become. You can start off with a broad idea then simplify it. I remember hearing Neil Finn say that its all about melody and thats true. Carly admires the 1980s as a great era for melody. That decade in British music had some of the best melody around. U2, David Bowie, The Thompson Twins, were what I listened to. All Eurythmics songs are so consistently well written. She writes her songs using an acoustic guitar. Songwriting is sometimes very scary. You can be sitting there with eight songs and need ten. Then wonder where the hell the other two will come from! The basis of song-writing is to keep inspired. You cant allow yourself to be a drama queen, but you have to let things effect you. Due to her knowledge of art, Carly believes that environment has a lot to do with how music is written. If Id written this album in New York, itd be entirely different. It depends on where you are and where youre at as a person. The sentiments in the first 3 singles released in New Zealand certainly show where thought meets emotion. Theyre about relationships the thrill of a simple kiss (We Kissed), chilling out (Alright With Me), dreaming of the future (Love Will Save Me). The songs are strongly melodic and shes not afraid to add to the light-heartedness by having some ba-ba-bas la-la-las and do-do-dos! I evolve quite quickly. I get into a song record it then move onto the next one. Even with the way I look. I look like a completely different person from video to video! Carly is looking forward to adventuring outside New Zealand with her music. Id love to write my next album in New York. I spent some time there and L.A and loved it. Itll be an interesting place to be a musician, I dont think you have to be J-Lo or nothing. Theres something in the middle. And Im not going to be moulded into something Im not. Carly Binding is in it for the long-haul and is striving to be the best she can. Having a father whos an artist changes the way you think about fame. Its not enough. Id rather have 10 people think one of my songs is the best theyve ever heard, than a million think shes fing cool! I dont want to be one of those enormously successful people whose career lasts only 2 years! Im not competitive against other people, but success is something achieved by people whove faced their fears, hit a brick wall and broken through.
