'the musical moods vary from wistfulness and melancholy to an understated sense of urgency, and the carefully crafted melodies glimmer with echoes of folk, popular and classical music.- Jessica Nicholas, The Age

10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, FOLK: like Joni Details: At 23, Gian has emerged as an artist of great musical individuality and depth. She has been recognized for her highly mobile and accurate voice, uncommon improvisational ability, and strong repertoire of original material. Born and raised in Canberra, Gian moved to Melbourne to pursue her career and studies. In 2003 she completed her Bachelor of Music Performance at the Victorian College of the Arts (VCA). Whilst at VCA, she received numerous awards, including the Mabel Kent Estate Singing Scholarship, the Gwen Nisbett Award, and the Athenaeum Ensemble Award. She has featured with her ensembles, and also with the Andrea Keller Ensemble, Christopher Hale Ensemble, Alison Wedding Quartet, Geoff Hughes Collective and Jamie Oehlers Quartet. Gian recorded for ABC Classic FM, Jazz Track, in 2003. In 2004, she received an Australia Council Youth Grant to co-compose and perform a song cycle with Trombonist Shannon Barnett, which premiered at the Melbourne Womens International Jazz Festival She was selected as a finalist for the prestigious National Freedman Fellowship (2004) and the National Jazz Awards (2005). Gian featured on the Aria nominated album Angels and Rascals Andrea Keller Project released in 2005 with ABC and also released her debut album, In My Head, receiving critical attention and wide praise I would suggest that music lovers who relish hearing an artist perform original material with obvious sincerity would do well to keep an eye out for In My Head (Rhythms Magazine).
