Details: Jenna Bollard is a 19 year old singer/songwriter from Connecticut. She is currently attending Berklee College of Music in Boston, MA to strengthen her performing abilities and to become a certified Music Therapist. Jennas album, Falling Into Place, was created during the course of her senior year in high school when she created a project: Exploring the Healing Powers of Music. Inspired by her grandfather, whom had been affected by musics healing powers when suffering from Alzheimers Disease, Jenna began to study the career of music therapy. Throughout the year Jenna shadowed music therapists, researched the healing powers of music, performed for members of assisted living homes, traveled to hospitals to provide music to patients, created a CD of original compositions to sell as a benefit for Alzheimers Disease and, organized Medicinal Melodies in the Park: A Benefit Concert for Alzheimers. "Falling Into Place" is a compilation of uplifting and motivational ballads and folk tunes. Songs about heartbreak, encouragement, uncertainty, past, present and hope are expressed through Jenna's honest lyrics and natural voice. A new album of Jenna Bollard's originals is currently an ongoing project with a much more indepth and mature spin on songwriting. If you enjoyed "Falling Into Place", then you will most certainly appreciate following the growth of this young and inspiring musician. Stay tuned for updates!
