A remarkable variety of rhythmic styles in the synthesiser instrumental music, from dreamy solo guitar to pumping symphonic classic rock numbers. 17 MP3 Songs ROCK: Instrumental Rock, NEW AGE: New Age Details: My name is Jeremy Feldmesser. I was born in England in 1962, and am currently living and working in France (my wife is French!). I am not signed to any record label yet. I compose, arrange, score, play, edit, engineer and cut my own CD's, in fact the proverbial one-man-band! I use a Korg M1, a Panasonic SX KC 600 Synth, and a Casio CPS 700 digital piano, (I run out of keys on the other two!) I edit Midi with Propellorhead's Reason ,Cakewalk or Steinberg Cubase, running on a 2.6 GHz PC, a SBLive! sound card running Win XP Pro. I have made some tracks with my son, Rohan, 18 (as noted on the album). I learned some basic music theory at an early age from piano lessons and adopted the cello as my instrument during my teens. I have always enjoyed making music, and with the technology of midi, can play the orchestra from my PC. I enjoy listening to many different styles of music, with a somewhat classical background of ensemble playing during my school years but have a large variety of influences, and many different genres in my music collection. I cite my main influences as Jean Michel Jarre, Tangerine Dream, Mike Oldfield, and Yanni. I feel that instrumental music has a very broad reach, eliminating as it does, the limitations of language, and I have not yet expanded into song-writing, but would like to enter this field too. If you would like to collaborate on a track you can E-mail me at ; jfeldmesser@voila.fr I am very encouraging of anyone wishing to make music and will help anyone I can with getting into music , learn an instrument or with computer related music making. I also feel that it is time we had a new renaissance on this planet in the field of music and the arts,(don't you ?) and I feel the Internet can help bring this about. I hope you like my music!!
