Originally from Athens, Georgia, the home of many world renowned bands such as REM and the B52s, where he performed in cover bands in the genres of jazz, rhythm and blues, country and acoustic rock for many years. He has now evolved into a solo artist and composer with his first CDs, "Nightfall," "Daydreams" and "Sanctuary." His first two CDs, "Nightfall" and "Daydreams," contain his original compositions and were used by the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra as fund raisers. His classical music training and experience with many genres are now blended in his unique musical compositions with unique sounds ranging from upbeat to easy listening. His latest CD, "Castlerea," displays his wide range of musical talents as both a composer and performer. For more information about Keith and to sample his music go to keithphillips.net. His CDs are for sale on his website as well as itunes, amazon.com, cdbaby, many internet music sites and gift shops throughout the U.S.
