Rockin' blues with style sensitivity - Thelma Louise keep on driving 11 MP3 Songs BLUES: Blues Vocals, POP: with Live-band Production Details: GOOD NEWS! "The Honey I Want", co-written by Liz Tansey, David Leask Suzie Vinnick has won First Place in Blues Category of The International Songwriting Competition 2004!! LIZ TANSEY sings with a seamless confidence that instantly puts listeners in the palm of her caring hand. Liz recently released her first solo CD, "WHAT I WANT", which features an organic mix of what she calls Soulful Rockin' Blues. Others call it sexy, swampy and "...a gigantic roller coaster ride between those two inseparable bed-mates: music emotion..." Real Music magazine. "WHAT I WANT" was co-produced by Liz Tansey Ralph Cole (guitarist, composer, producer and co-founding member of Lighthouse) and offers 11 songs, 7 of which were co-written by Liz. Subject matter ranges from love lust to friendship, the homeless, biblical girls and taking a stand. "Overall,"explains Liz, "the perspective of the album is about living one's life bravely, being unafraid of falling down and always getting back up." Most recently, Liz co-produced a CD, "FEELING GOOD" with another fine Canadian singer, Shelley Hamilton (also available at cdbaby!). WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT "WHAT I WANT": Re: "Hello Blues", "...It's a great track..." Dan Aykroyd (Elwood Blues) "...Fabulously huge sounds form a perfect platform for a distinctive, powerful voice..." Real Music "...Liz Tansey is a blues singer at heart and a darn good one at that...with a set of songs that let her colourful, throaty voice work its magic..." Words and Music
