This CD phraseology represents 8 instrumentals (saxophone) and 2 vocals. With the gathering of some of the most prestigious, talented musicians in CT Martin has assembled an organic, funky, R&B rythem section to set the table to blow over. The remake of "Mister Magic" is a tribute to the late great legendary saxophonist Grover Washington Jr. "The closer I get to you" is a ballad remake in which Martin plays alto sax with a very urban groove beneath. The next 2 tracks are originals written by John Avellani and Martin. The bass line on "Just a Phrase I'm In" is a Classic. The B3 work and all vocals on "The Rest Of My Days" is special and has a splash of T.O.P. On "Sara Smile" and "The Lady In My Life" the playing is a cross between many saxophonists..very Smooth and very unique The percussion tracks are blended to give a Latin feel at times yet still smooth and R&B at the same time. All these songs and "Sailing.. the last track were produced by Mickey DiMichele and Paul Scialabba w/ Martin. "That's The Way Love Goes" (Janet Jackson remake) was produced by Bobbi Tamarro along with "Who What Where.." the other original vocal tune. Bobbi's resume includes TV scores for many soap operas and prime time TV shows like "Beverly Hills 90210". Throughout the CD "Phraseology" you will hear some Killer grooves w/ magical bass lines along with some Funky guitars some dynamic percussion and most of all the phrasing of Alto, Tenor, and Soprano saxes w/ just enough vocals to embellish the whole sound. Phraseology is the 5th CD released by Martin..the other 4 were under the artist name Marty Q All right here on CD Baby.
