Irish, contemporary and folk songs with a conscience. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, WORLD: Celtic Details: Mary Courtney hails from a large musical family from Castlegregory, Co. Kerry, Ireland. She is the lead singer, guitarist, and bodhrn (Irish hand-held drum) player with the very popular New York based Irish Traditional band 'Morning Star'. She has several recordings with the band and has also recorded with Black 47's Larry Kirwan on two of their albums 'Fire of Freedom' and their most recent recording 'New York Town' on the songs 'Living in America' and 'Eleven Years On'. 'Sceil Eile' is Mary's first solo CD. It is a collection of twelve songs each telling their own story of love (in its various forms), equality, and justice. Mary plays guitar for 10 of the tracks and bodhrn for one; she took the cover photo in 1995, from Brandon Point in Kerry. The last song is acapella. Beth Higgins sings backing vocals on track 5. Mary leads a steady Thursday night singers session, starting at 8.30pm at Dr. Gillberts Cafe, 1601 Broadway Bronx, NY, (718)548-9621. Every Tuesday night, she leads 'Trad Tuesday' at McKeowns Pub and Restaurant, 3rd Avenue between 74th and 75th Streets in New York City from 7pm until 11pm (212)452-2011. mckeownsnyc.com This gig is cancelled for the month of October because of the Baseball Playoffs. We resume on Tuesday Nov.1st! Log on to: artists.iuma.com/IUMA/Bands/Morning\_Star/ for shows.
